1. General information on the Bank of Finland publications

Bank of Finland periodicals are free of charge and can be ordered either as single copies or regular subscription (see requests for copies).

Statistical publications are available only online at www.bof.fi.

The Bank of Finland Annual Report is free of charge and available directly from the Bank.

The Coins and Banknotes of Finland can be purchased from bookshops or from the Bank of Finland Museum.

The booklet Suhteissa suurempaa voimaa, published in honour of the bicentenary of J. V. Snellman and available only in Finnish, can be purchased from the Bank of Finland Museum.

The Bank of Finland's publication operations are becoming largely electronic, in terms of both publication and distribution.

The Bank of Finland has introduced free electronic subscription service on its website, through which it is possible to order the Bank's publications in electronic form. The subscriber is sent an email alert whenever the publication(s) subscribed to are newly released.

Publications can be subscribed at www.bof.fi > Publications > Order and subscribe to electronic publications and reports.

Back copies of older printed publications still in stock can be ordered from the Bank of Finland (www.bof.fi).

Older printed publications of the Institute of Economies in Transition (BOFIT) (periodicals, Review of Economies in Transition, BOFIT Discussion Papers) are available free of charge directly from the Institute.
